

Isa. 8:19 COMMUNION OF SAINTS, DON'T CONSULT WITH THE DEAD

Isa. 8:19 *“And when they say to you, “Consult the mediums and the spiritists who whisper and mutter,” should not a people consult their God? {Should they} {consult} the dead on behalf of the living?

This is the origin of the "communion of saint's" phrase in the Apostles Creed. The "communion of Saints" as referred to in an article of the Apostles creed means the following: When Christian people who were special and did much good for mankind died, they could be given "Saint-hood" by the Pope. After these people rose to heaven they were to be communicated with by prayer according to the Roman Catholic church.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.

He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

This of course is pure garbage; the Bible tells us that all who are true believers are "Saints". Isaiah warned of people trying to communicate with the dead. We are all equal in the eyes of Adonai. This creed is often recited by entire congregations, and without realizing it, entire congregations are agreeing to this ridiculous article out loud, making a sacred oath of an abomination. The truth is, everything about the Pope making saints of men and women is a bad joke, the anti-Messiah Pope has no more authority in the eyes of Adonai.
